

“Lifting your SPIRIT” with Sarah Taylor Sponsorship

Sarah Taylor
Monday – Friday
7pm – 10pm

Sarah Taylor started listening to SPIRIT 105.3 in her college years and quickly became passionate about the music. She was a frequently-calling, bumper-sticker-displaying, song-requesting fan. Soon, she began an internship and pretty much refused to leave the studio once her semester was up! Sarah has been part of the station for over 10 years.

Sarah Taylor is one of the premier communicators in the nation, in any radio format... This new evening program is an innovative, creative platform for Sarah to connect with evening SPIRIT listeners. In Sarah’s words...

Authentic and welcoming, “Lifting Your Spirit with Sarah Taylor” offers a chance to go a little deeper with our listener together: What is my purpose? Am I enough? Who is God and what are His plans for me? Mixed with music and stories/interviews, listener interaction, Sarah’s heart for the SPIRIT family, together we acknowledge that there are not easy, one-size-fits-all answers for life’s bigger questions. “Lifting Your Spirit with Sarah Taylor” will share in both celebrations and disappointments. Most of all, it’s a nightly reminder that you’re not on this journey alone.
